

Community Education Fair

This year, we're thinking outside the box...

Several organizations in the healthcare community are joining forces to host a free education fair, so you have access to more expertise, increased opportunities for networking, and a wider variety of educational topics at a single event.

Topics this year will include Privacy & Security, preventing common rejections, how to get Medicare incentives for follow-ups, and more. Join us for this free educational opportunity at one of our four locations!
